

The Center for Forest Ecology does not have a board of directors like independent organizations.

It is under supervisory jurisdiction of the University of Department of Forest Resources (<https://www.forestry.umn.edu/>), Kristen Nelson, Acting Department Head, and The College of Food Agriculture and Natural Resources (<https://cfans.umn.edu/>), Brian Buhr, Dean.

The faculty of the Center include:

Lee E. Frelich, Director and Institute on the Environment Fellow
(<https://www.forestry.umn.edu/people/lee-e-frelich>)

Peter B. Reich, Regents Professor of forest ecology, Member, National Academy of Sciences
(<https://www.forestry.umn.edu/people/peter-b-reich>)

Rebecca Montgomery, Professor and Institute on the Environment Fellow
(<https://www.forestry.umn.edu/people/rebecca-montgomery>)
